

Expand into Creative Industries

Inherit skills, techniques and assets cultivated by our forerunners – as a livelihood – while advancing in wisdom –

Why don't you foster industries tied to your lifestyle in order to pass down the rich and diverse culture and assets to the future of Sasayama?

Convey and

5 Tapping into specialty items locally produced

“Even more people used to join in festivals.”

“Speaking of which, I recall that my grandmother made dried persimmons like this.”

Autumn festival at Sasaba Shrine (In Hatamiya)

“Everybody got together to replace thatched roofs.”

Utilize

“Thatch is not available anymore; I forgot how to, too.”

“I guess gathering firewood formed Satoyama (natural woodlands).”